THEMED MEAL AND FILM REVIEW

November 28th 6.30p.m.

One Life tells the true story of Nicholas Winton, a young London broker who, in the months before World War II, raced to rescue hundreds of children from Nazi-occupied Czechoslovakia. Decades later, he confronts his memories and guilt until a moving reunion brings closure. The film is praised for Anthony Hopkins' powerful performance, emotional depth, and an inspiring message making it a heartfelt and worthwhile
